A graduate of Wheaton College and Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, David is ordained in the PCA and serves on the council of the Gospel Coalition. He authored 1 & 2 Peter and Jude in Crossway's Preaching the Word series, The Big Picture Story Bible and contributed to Preach the Word: Essays on Expository Preaching in Honor of Kent Hughes. PRINCIPLES (6 sessions)

You will learn principles of exposition aimed at improving your ability to understand and teach the Bible. You will witness clear and easy-to-understand methods of approaching the Text and revealing its underlying Truth.

PREACHING (3 sessions)

You will hear model sermons from the Bible, meant to demonstrate exposition practically. You will watch as the principles of exposition are used and each passage is taught with a captivating honesty and faithfulness.

PRACTICE (4 sessions)

You will meet together in small groups to work together on assigned passages. You will prepare in advance, share, and receive feedback on your notes for two sermons from men who share the pastoral calling and have the opportunity for fellowship.

Luke wrote for the ordinary Christian and for the preacher. His gospel is the most detailed portrait of the Lord Jesus Christ we have, drawn from eyewitnesses and placed in an orderly account to help us understand its meaning. There is more teaching on discipleship and God than any other gospel, more miracles, more parables, more Jesus. Jesus comes to reverse what we have done to the world, to bring release through the kingdom, to seek and to save the lost.

Join David Helm and David Short for this Workshop on Biblical Exposition. You will gain the necessary tools for preaching and teaching.
